

FANTASY 6 SPORTS INC. LAUNCHES *DRAFT RIVALS: FANTASY BASKETBALL

Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada (Tuesday, December 6, 2016) – Fantasy 6 Sports Inc. (“Fantasy 6” or the “Company”) (CSE: FYS)(OTC: FNTYF)(FRANKFURT: 6F6 – WKN: A2AKL8) is quickly expanding its roster of mobile game titles – and its presence in the fast-growing mobile gaming market in North America and around the world – by launching its first foray into National Basketball Association (“NBA”) basketball with Draft Rivals: Fantasy Basketball, which is scheduled to be officially released Thursday, December 15th.

“We can’t wait to see the player response to Draft Rivals: Fantasy Basketball, our first NBA title, coming so quickly as it does on the heels of our highly-successful experience with Fantasy Football Coach,” said Shafin Diamond Tejani, CEO of Fantasy 6. “We truly believe this is the daily fantasy basketball video game that the market has been waiting for, especially fans who are intrigued by the challenge of building winning lineups each night.”

Draft Rivals: Fantasy Basketball will allow players to face off in live PvP (Player versus Player) action against basketball rivals from around the world. Players are able to open up card packs to collect their favorite players and draft their collection. It will be defined by fast-paced bids to get superstar players on fantasy teams. Draft Rivals features enhanced team search functionality so that players can easily find their friends.

“What we really like about our Draft Rivals: Fantasy Basketball mobile game is the social side - how it enables players to engage with their friends by helping build their teams or, on the other hand, working to go head-to-head to defeat them,” said Tejani. “That’s why we’re convinced Draft Rivals will attract many new players to our amazing community of basketball fans!”

Created and developed by 1UP Mobile Inc., Draft Rivals: Fantasy Basketball will allow players to improve their odds of getting superstar players by making it easy to buy new card packs.

With an eye on the lucrative video game market – most notably the fast-rising mobile game segment that combines the popularity of fantasy sports with the phenomenon of mobile – Fantasy 6 will use the launch of Draft Rivals to rapidly broaden its user network in the coming weeks and months.

Draft Rivals joins Fantasy Football Coach as dynamic Fantasy 6 assets in a global mobile gaming market projected by Newzoo, a video game research firm, to have revenues topping US$40.9 billion by 2017 (<http://fortune.com/2015/01/15/mobile-console-game-revenues-2015/>).

Also scheduled for release in early 2017 is a new Major League Baseball (MLB) game and a Indian Premier League Cricket (IPL) game, titles reflecting the Fantasy 6 commitment to mobile gaming and a diversified, global user base transcending North American team sports.
